*Call to Worship

Love is many things...
Especially being together.
Here. Today. Now. Later. At home.
Together. With love, in love.
in the presence of Love.
Let us worship together!

Hymn                “Let There be Light, O God of Hosts”
                         New Century Hymnal #589   vss. 1, 2, 4

Let there be light, O God of hosts!
Let there be wisdom on the earth!
Let broad humanity have birth!
Let there be deeds, instead of boasts!

Give us the peace of senses clear to know our neighbors' good our own;
To hope and suffer not alone,
bonded in love that conquers fear.

Let woe and waste of warfare cease,
that useful labor yet may build
Its homes with love and laughter filled!
God, give your wayward children peace.

Unison Prayer

Please remain standing and join me in today's Unison Prayer.

Sometimes it requires only being present...
to be together.
Other times it takes a lot more.
Whatever it requires,
we are called to be with each other.
in Love. And that can really stir things up! May it be so. Good trouble.
May it be so.

Installation of Barbra Salva as Member of Sayville Congregational United Church of Christ

Barbara, thank you for deciding to become a member of our congregation. We are blessed by and grateful for your choice!

Affirmations of Membership:

Do you wish to affirm your baptism with us today in this faith family and congregation of Sayville Congregational United Church of Christ?

I do.

Do you affirm the loving and good powers of God, in the ways you know God, as we strive together to follow the teachings of Jesus Christ on this spiritual journey we share?

I do.

Will you continue to practice recognizing the Christ in each of us, the one Jesus brought into the world, the Christ that existed long before creation ever stirred?

I will.

Do you promise with God's help, as you know God, to follow in the ways of these teachings; resisting oppression and wrongdoing; bringing your heart of justice and love into the lives of our neighbors; a witness and guide to all – as best as you are able?

I do, with God's help.

Do you affirm your intention to be a faithful member of the Love we share in this Christian tradition, one of God's many paths? and do you affirm your intention to be guided by this Love in furthering the presence and witness of God we are called to bring into the world?

I do.

Will you support and commit your energies and gifts to this congregation, working with us and others on their spiritual journeys and paths to God – from wherever they may come?

I will with God's help.

Friends, please welcome

Communion Prayer

God be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them up to God.

Let us give thanks to God.
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Jesus said:

I am the bread of life.
You who come to me shall not hunger; you who believe in me shall never thirst.

In company with all who hunger for spiritual food, we come to this table to experience again the risen Christ in the sharing of this life-giving bread.

In this place as in all places, it is indeed right to always bring thanks to you. You Creator God, Christ and Spirit are our Divine path of all that is – and then more.

You are the Universe's Guarantor:
Hope. Justice. Peace. Joy.
And virtues we have yet to learn.
All these are your gifts to us.
May this meal nourish us in them all.

Sayville Congregational United Church of Christ

For more than a century and a half, Sayville's Congregational Church has served families on the South Shore of Long Island and has been a voice for the progressive Protestant tradition. A member of the United Church of Christ since it was established in 1957, today we continue to celebrate God's love, to advocate and act for the oppressed, and to welcome all those on their spiritual journey, from wherever they may come. Thank you for joining us. Please contact us at any time for more information about our congregation or with any questions you may have for us. Merry Christmas.
