Call to Worship

Please rise or remain seated for this morning's "Call to Worship"

Some among us might say:

"I hope I can pay attention for the next hour...
so much on my mind."

It's ok...

Pay attention as best you can,
let your mind wander as it needs to,
for it wanders among us
and those thoughts, too, are in worship."

Come, be still, wander and be here with us together.

Please rise if you wish and join us in singing:

Hymn "Here in This Place" Sing! Prayer and Praise #5

Holy one may your presence here open our minds.
May your Spirit among us help us to find
You are rising up now like a fountain of grace
From the holy ground here in this place. Here in this place (Repeat)

Please be seated.

Gospel Reading: Luke 10:5-160

As Jesus was walking along the Sea of Galilee, he watched two brothers—Simon, who was called Peter, and Andrew— casting a net into the sea. They fished by trade. Jesus said to them, “Come follow me, and I will make you fishers of humankind.” They immediately abandoned their nets and began to follow Jesus.

Jesus walked along further and caught sight of a second pair of brothers—James and John, ben-Zebedee. They too were in their boat, mending their nets with their father. Jesus called them, and immediately they abandoned both boat and father to follow him.

Homily      Rev. Jeannie Baum

Please rise if you wish and join us in singing:

Hymn                      “There Is a Balm in Gilead”      New Century Hymnal #553

Refrain

There is a balm in Gilead, to make the wounded whole, there is a balm in Gilead, to heal the sin-sick soul.

Sometimes I feel discouraged, and think my work’s in vain,
But then the Holy Spirit revives my soul again.      (Refrain)

Don’t ever feel discouraged, for Jesus is your friend,
Who, if you ask for knowledge, will never fail to lend. (Refrain)

If you cannot preach like Peter, if you cannot pray like Paul,
You can tell the love of Jesus, who died to save us all. (Refrain)

Assurance of God’s Love and Passing of the Peace

Friends, this is a welcome house, a place where we honor your labors and service to others. Where in all the ways we give and offer of ourselves, we extend God’s love. In these ways and more we are assured of God’s presence and love and the peace that we are promised; a peace that is in all of us.

With this and more, from deep in our hearts, we offer this wish:
“May the peace of the Risen Christ be with you!”

And also with you.

Friends, let us offer one another a sign of peace.

Joys and Concerns

The Prayer of Jesus

Creator God, who art in heaven, hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we strive to forgive those who trespass against us,
and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.
For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory.
Forever and ever. Amen.

Hymn                                    "Spirit of the Living God"                    New Century Hymnal

Welcome Rev. Jeanne Baum!

Rev. Jeanne W. Baum is Pastor Emerita after eighteen years of service at Old South Haven Presbyterian Church in Brookhaven Hamlet. She grew up in a Congregational Church in the small town of Halifax, Massachusetts which is now a UCC church. Old South Haven shares the affirmation of "open and affirming" as a "more light church" since the mid-eighties. Prior to ordination and graduation from Union Theological Seminary, she taught pre-school and then worked as a HUD certified counselor dealing with issues of racial discrimination and homelessness. She is mom to two adult children and three step- children and was recently widowed. Her husband Bob Baum, although not an ordained pastor, preached at many churches on the topic of stewardship.
