Call to Worship

Please remain seated for our "Call to Worship"

[Jesus said]..."There was a traveler..." A traveler set upon by robbers. Those who passed by the injured person by included a priest and a member of a notable tribe of Jerusalem. But one who, himself, was considered an outcast in Judaism – a Samaritan – "filled with compassion" took care of the injured person.

[Jesus asked the disciples] "Which of these, in your opinion, was the neighbor to the traveler who fell in with the robbers?"

The answer came: "The one who showed compassion."

"Then go and do the same," Jesus replied.

Please rise if you wish and join us in singing.

Hymn "For You Shall Go Out" Sing! Prayer and Praise #52

For you shall go out and be led forth with peace;
and the mountains and hills shall break forth into song;
and the leaves on the trees shall clap their hands!

For as rain and snow come down, and do not return until they bring bread to the world;
so the words of my mouth shall be heard

(Next Page)

Instead of the thorn the cypress come.
Instead the of the briar the myrtle will grow;
A sign it will be for evermore.

For you shall go out and be led forth with peace;
and the mountains and hills shall break forth into song;
and the leaves on the trees shall clap their hands!

Please be seated.

Joys and Concerns Please respond, "God, hear our prayers."

Please rise and let us offer one another a sign of peace:

Assurance of God's Love and Passing of the Peace

Friends, in our prayers for one another, we are assured of being heard and touched by God in the compassion and love we share. From this place of assurance of God's love and gratitude for all we hold dear,

"May the peace of the Risen Christ be with you!"

And also with you.

Friends, let us offer one another a sign of peace.

And remain standing as we pray the prayer that Jesus taught the disciples to pray

The Prayer of Jesus - The Lord's Prayer

Creator God, who art in heaven, hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we strive to forgive those who trespass against us,
and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.
For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory.
Forever and ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

Canticle (Sean). "O Wisdom, Breathed from God" New Century Hymnal p. 740

O Wisdom breathed from God, Most High, your depth all cosmic bounds defy,
Your might in gentleness holds sway; come forth and teach your prudent way.

O Day-spring ever shining bright, O Sun of justice, splendid light, Shine on each soul by loss held fast, break through the clouds of doubt at last.

All praise to you, great Mystery, the undivided God-in-One,
Our constant aid, on you we call: our God, Creator of us all.

Gospel Reading: Luke 10:38-42

As they traveled, Jesus entered a village where a woman named Martha welcomed him to her home. She had a sister named Mary, who seated herself at Jesus' feet and listened to his words. Martha, who was busy with all the details of hospitality, came to Jesus and said, "Rabbi, don't you care that my sister has left me all alone to do the household tasks? Tell her to help me!" Jesus replied, "Martha, Martha! You're anxious and upset about so many things, but only a few things are necessary—really only one. Mary has chosen the better part, and she won't be deprived of it."

Homily Really? Ray Bagnuolo

Please rise if you wish and join us in singing our closing hymn:

Hymn "Creator God, Creating Still" New Century Hymnal #278

Creator God, creating still, by will and word and deed,
Create a new humanity to meet the current need.

Redeeming God, redeeming still, with overwhelming grace,
Pour out your love on us, through us, make this a holy place.

Sustainer God, sustaining still, with strength for every day,
Empower us to do your will. Correct us when we stray.

Great Triune God, for this new day, we need your presence still.
Create, redeem, sustain us now to do your work and will.

Benediction
