Be safe.

O God, our hope and refuge, in times of remembrance we come to you. The days have

We have been brought to you as all a nation, we have proportion of man, we have itself. We are not forgotten
through faith and hope in you or diminished, even in our grown with the loss of these lives
innocence, not in vengeful way, we pray, power of your Love. O God, our hope and refuge, today and always we come to you.

Hosanna (Please help us).

Call to Worship

Adapted from Hebrews Chapter 13

Continue to love each other as siblings. Show hospitality to strangers, for by doing so some people have entertained angels. Keep in mind those who are marginalized, as if you, too, were marginalized. Let relationships be honored by everyone; let love be as love is.

Be content in your gratitude and restless with injustice; do what you can; support those who do more; and pray without ceasing for prayer is always “part of the plan” in all God’s creation.

The Gospel of Mark

(Mark 12:29-34)

Matthew 22:34-40, Mark 12:28-34

One of the religious scholars who had listened to them debating and had observed how well Jesus had answered them, now came up and put a question to him: "Rabbi, which is the foremost of all the commandments?"

Jesus replied, "This is the foremost: 'Hear, O Israel, God, our God, is one. You must love the Most High God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind and with all your strength.'

The second is this: 'You must love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no commandment greater than these." The scholar said to Jesus, "Well spoken, Teacher! What you

The second is this: 'You must love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no commandment greater than these."

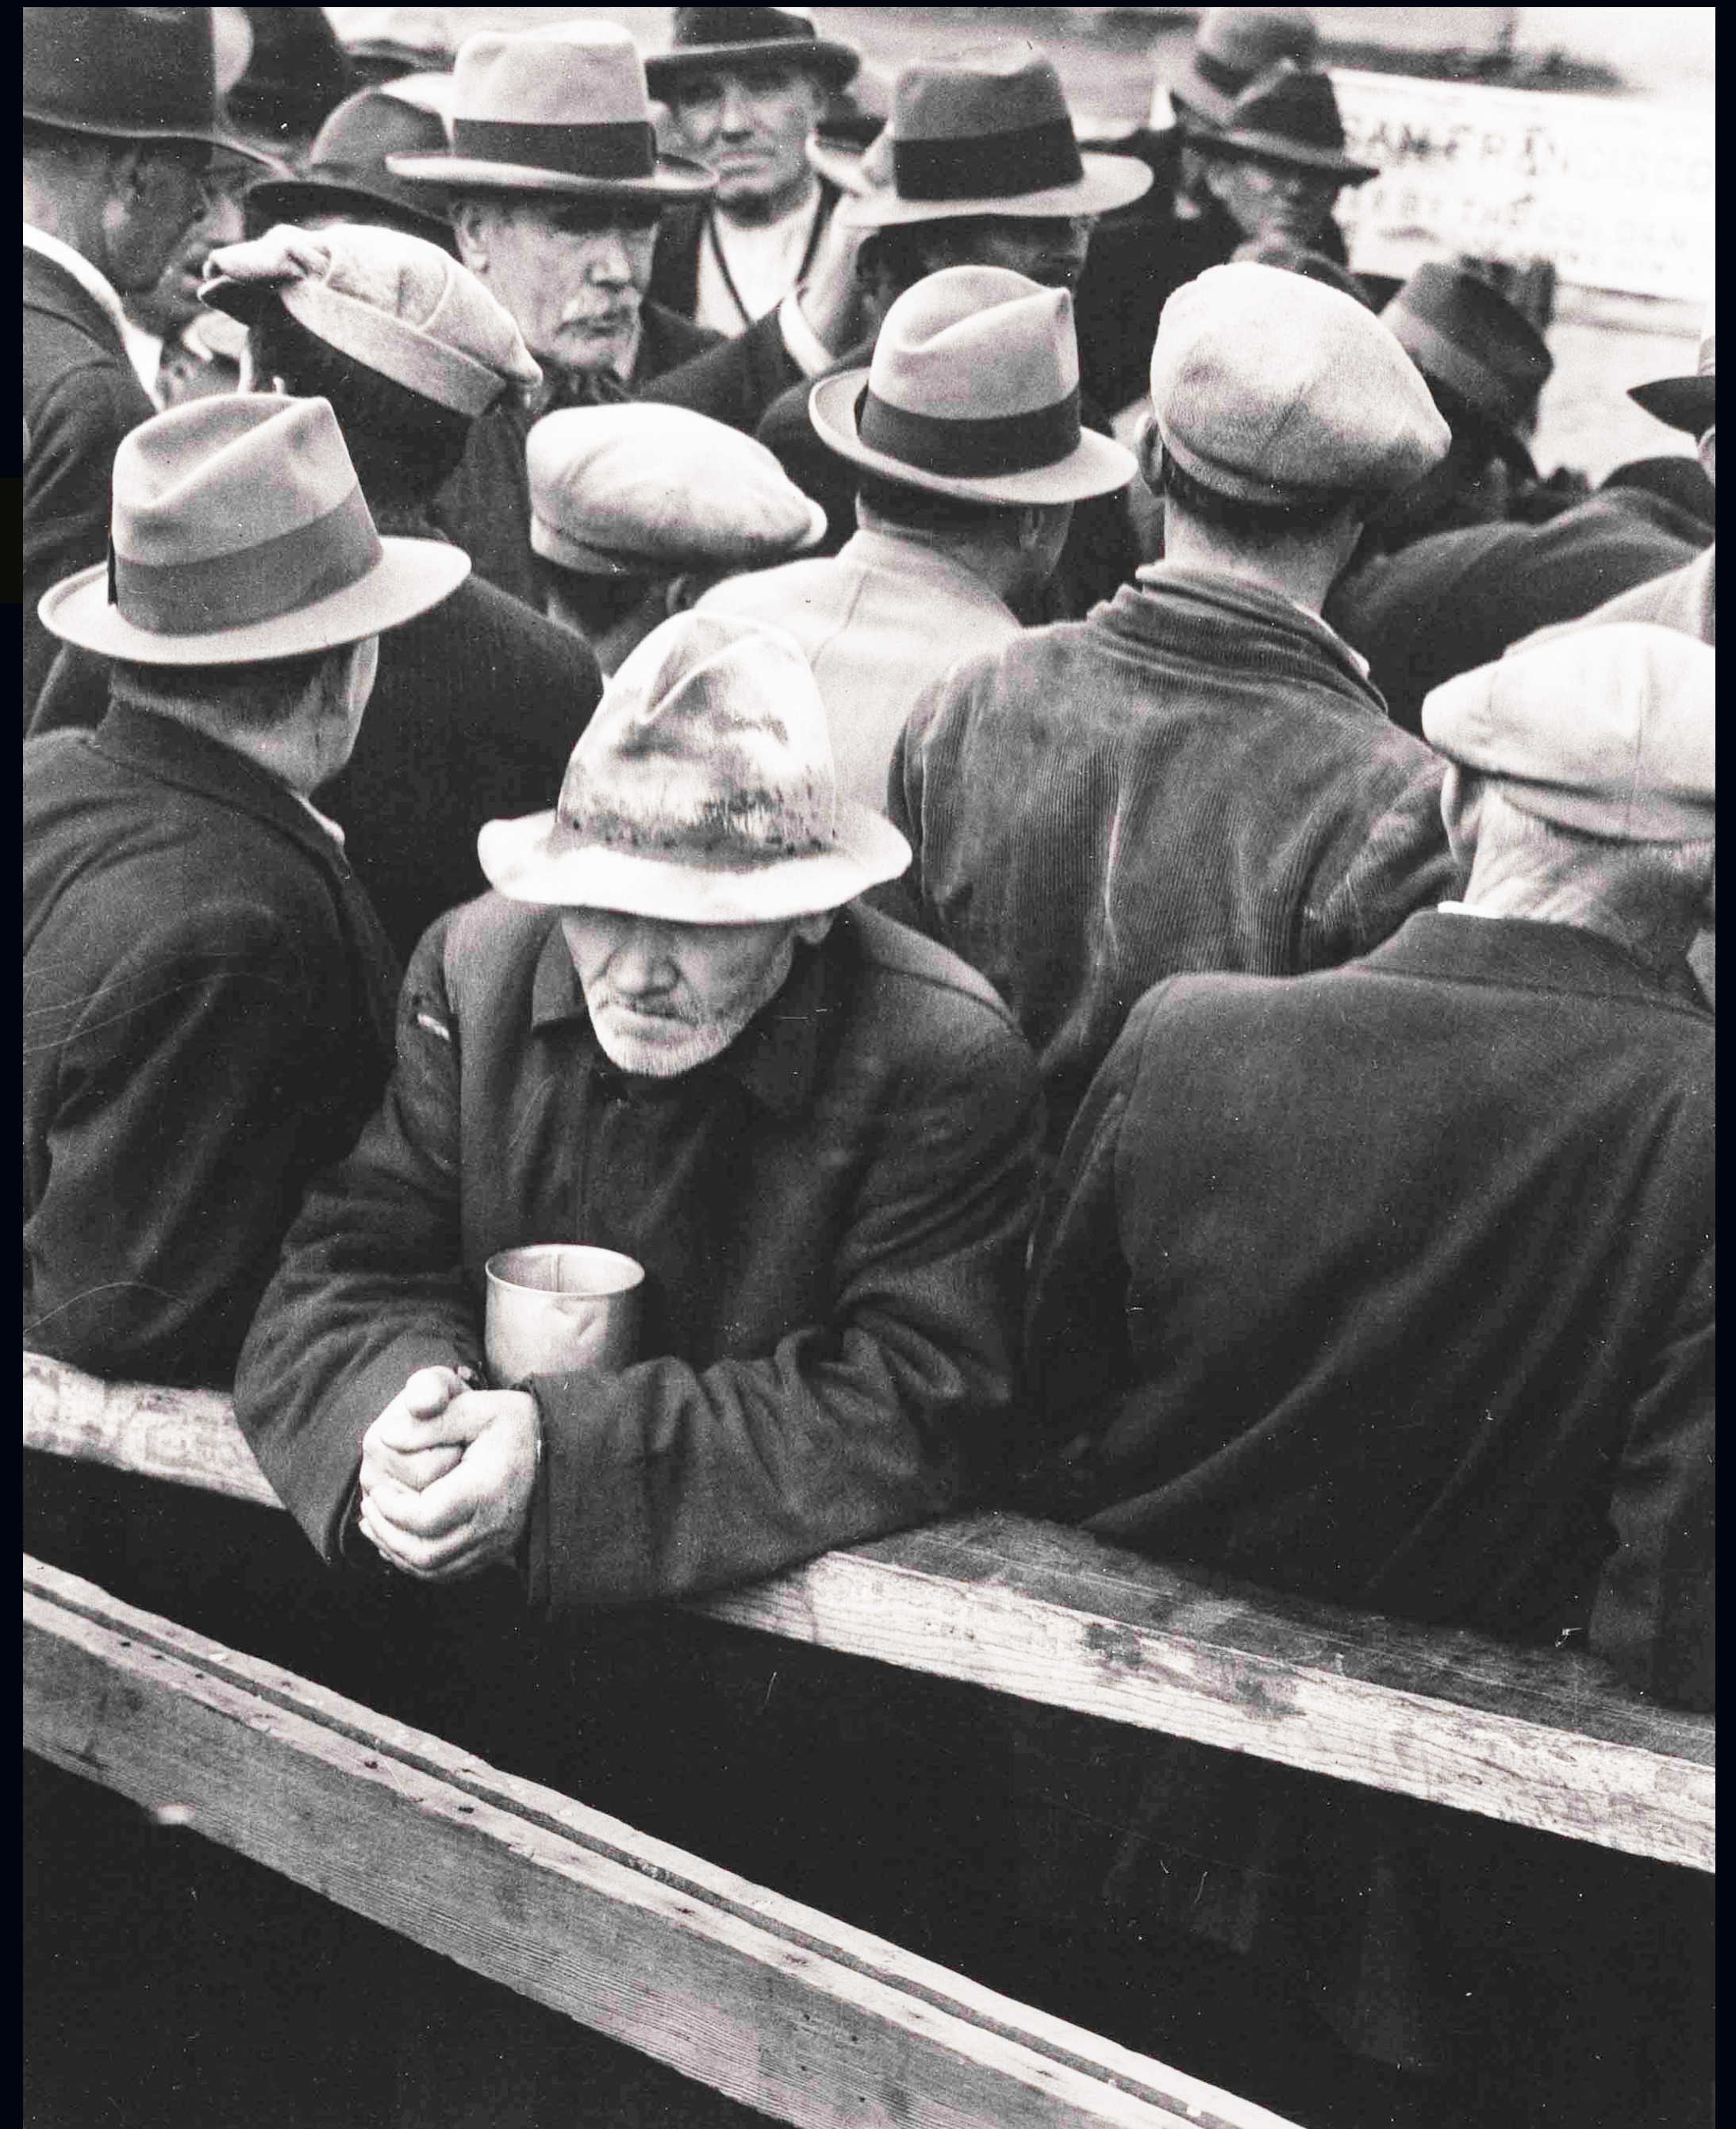

The scholar said to Jesus, "Well spoken, Teacher! What you have said is true: the Most High is one and there is no other. To love God with all your heart, with all your understanding and strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself—this is far more important than any burnt offering or sacrifice."

Jesus, seeing how wisely this scholar had spoken, said, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And after that no one dared to question Jesus any more.

Joys & Concerns

We pray

The prayer that Jesus taught his disciples...

Creator God, who art in heaven,
hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we strive to forgive those
who trespass against us,
and lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.
For yours is the kingdom
and the power and the glory.
Forever and ever. Amen.

Meditation (2X)

*New Century
Hymnal #743*

Be still and know that I am God.

Be still and know that I am God.

Be still and know that I am God.

May the Peace of Christ

be with you always...

Benediction

Church Covenant

In response to God's love,
we covenant with each other...
to be faithful to the demands
and inspiration of the eternal spirit,
revealed in the event of Jesus Christ;
to accept and respect each other
with love and concern
in our worship and witness;
to reach out with the courage
of our convictions
in the cause of justice,
liberation, and equality for all.
In this, we covenant to keep the ultimate promise: "I care, I am with you."
