S1 Welcome

Good morning, everyone, my name is Kris Minschke and it is my pleasure to serve as your liturgist today and to welcome you to Sayville Congregational United Church of Christ – “Where you are welcome long before you arrive!”

Please know that whether you are joining us in person or online, we are grateful you are here.

So, if you would, please refer to the brochure in your bulletin.

(Please hold up the brochure.)

In this brochure you will find more information on today’s announcements, including an envelope for the annual “Neighbors in Need” campaign by the national church, information on upcoming events, and a calendar Advent and Christmas services. Please take this home with you and use it as a reference for the days ahead.

S2 Victorian Tea

And, as you can tell by our sanctuary and vestry arrangements! We have just finished our 31st Annual Victorian Tea, and I am pleased to ask our “Tea Leader” Connie Kauffman to “wrap it up for us”! Connie...

[After Connie is done]

Thank you, Connie!

S3 Brochure/Announcements

In your bulletins, you will also see information on today’s Transgender Day of Remembrance taking place at Unitarian Universalist Fellowship at Stony Point starting at 2 PM today.

[Kris, I do not know if Barbara will be here this morning. She may be tied up in getting ready for the TDOR. If she is here, we will call her up for a minute to talk about the gathering, otherwise, we will just move on.0

S4 – Trains Click to start video

As has been the custom for the last few years, we welcome in this time of the year in many ways – including the “Holiday Train Set” arranged and operated by Jimmy and Elise Cesare. Children and adults alike find this to be a rich reminder of the joyful and loving gatherings of this time of the year. Thank you to the Cesares!

[Continue to let the video play through the ringing of the bell.

And, now, please take a moment to center and enter into this moment together, as the bell is rung and we continue this morning’s worship...

S5 Prelude

Prelude "Souvenir" by Marcel Dupré

S6 – 11 Call to Worship

Friends, please listen and follow along as I read this morning's Call to Worship:

Call to Worship "Poem" by Mary Oliver

Read by Kris Minschke

The Spirit

Likes to dress up like this:

ten fingers,

ten toes,

shoulders, and all the rest

at night

in the black branches,

in the morning

in the blue branches

of the world.

It could float, of course,

but would rather

plumb rough matter.

Airy and shapeless thing,

it needs

the metaphor of the body,

lime and appetite,

the oceanic fluids;

it needs the body's world,

instinct

and imagination

and the dark hug of time,

sweetness

and tangibility,

...

to be understood,

to be more than pure light

that burns

where no one is—

so it enters us—

in the morning

shines from brute comfort

like a stitch of lightning

and at night

lights up the deep and wondrous

drownings of the body

like a star.

S12 – 14 Kris Hymn

Please rise if you wish and join us in singing this morning's hymn:

Hymn Joyful, Joyful, We Adore You! New Century Hymnal #4
 Verses 1 & 2

Joyful, joyful, we adore you, God of Glory, God of Love;
Hearts unfold like flowers before you, opening to the sun above.
Melt the clouds of sad and sadness, drive the storms of doubt away;
Giver of immortal gladness, fill us with the light of day.

All your works with joy surround you , earth and heaven reflect your rays,
Stars and angels sing around you, center of unbroken praise.
Field and forest, vale and mountain, flowery meadow, flashing sea,
Chanting bird and flowing fountain, teach us what our praise should be.

(Continues from the hymn...)

S15 – 18 Kris Unison Prayer

Please remain standing and join in praying our Unison Prayer

Unison Prayer

*We who are of the gentle soul and tender heart of yours,
we lift our thanks and gratitude, with all of humanity.*

You join us at every table,

A*re with us on every walk*

there in times of need and serenity, alike.

All we need do is to remember...

Whether

On the streets, the battlefields,

and as new life is born...

You are with us always,

and with us as we extend ourselves to others,

Extending our gentle souls and tender hearts to all,

As you have extended them to us.

Please be seated

Kris Today's Reading

Today's reading is Psalm 46, please listen for the way in which this may speak to your heart...

- ¹ God is our refuge and our strength,
who from of old has helped us in our distress.
- ² Therefore we fear nothing—
even if the earth should open up in front of us
and mountains plunge into the depths of the sea, ³ even if the earth's waters rage and foam
and the mountains tumble with its heaving.
- ⁴ There's a river whose streams gladden
the city of God,
the holy dwelling of the Most High.
⁵ God is in its midst, it will never fall—
God will help it at daybreak.
- ⁶ Though nations are in turmoil and empires crumble,
God's voice resounds, and it melts the earth.
- ⁷ *YHWH Sabaoth is with us—
our stronghold is the God of Israel!*
- ⁸ Come, see what Yhwh has done—
⁹ God makes the earth bounteous! God has put an end to war, from one end of the earth to the other, breaking bows, splintering spears, and setting chariots on fire.
- ¹⁰ " Be still, and know that I am God!
I will be exalted among the nations;
I will be exalted upon the earth."
- ¹¹ YHWH Sabaoth is with us—
our stronghold is the God of Israel!

Creator God who is in heaven; Hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come, your will be done; on Earth as it is in Heaven

Lead us not into temptation and deliver us from evil for yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Passing of Christ’s Peace

We know God is with us; we hold the greatest of commandments to love as a practice, a way of life. And, with the greeting of the one who promises “peace” beyond all understanding, from our minds, our hearts and our souls we say:

“May the peace of the Risen Christ be with you!” And also with you.

Friends, let us offer one another a sign of peace.
