

*Third Sunday of Lent
Sayville Congregational United Church of Christ
March 12, 2023*

Instructions for living a life:
Pay attention. Be astonished. Tell about it.

Mary Oliver, from "Sometimes"

Welcome

Ring of the Bell

Prelude Prelude for Organ, No. 93

Please stand if you wish and join in this morning's Call to Worship

Call to Worship

(From Mary Oliver: Where does the temple begin, where does it end?)

There are things you can't reach. But you can reach out to them, and all day long.
The wind, the bird flying away. The idea of God.
And it can keep you as busy as anything else, and happier.
Come, let us "reach out" to what we can and cannot reach...
Together in prayer and praise and song...

Please remain standing and join us in our opening hymn:

Unison Prayer

Liturgist:

Friends, in this season of Lent, we are invited to consider how we live as followers of Jesus – to look at our decisions and our actions straight on, and to hold them up to the example of Jesus – and to find a way to address what troubles us, directly, as we may. In this time of silence and prayer together, let us look at our lives. And so, we pray first in silence.

(Silent Prayer for One Minute)

Please join together in praying this morning's Unison Prayer

In Unison

by Joseph H. Gilmore

O Thou in whom the nations are united...
beneath edgy borders,
treaties which define friends and enemies,
the marching songs of a thousand armies,
and languages of wondrous difference,
each with a word for love, each with a word for peace:

Write some new agenda for a world healed into our hearts this day.
for even as we draw lines of wire and blood
across the face of the earth;
as we write treaties,
each more comprehensive than the last;
while trumpets and drums excite the worst in us;
and while we argue with each other in the foreign tongues of belligerence, ownership and power—the universe itself speaks with the vocabulary of shalom.

The wind blows every border.
The sun warms every upturned face,
the stars beguile every opened eye.
The earth opens its arms to all of its children,
providing a feeding place,
a growing place, a loving place,
and, at last, a resting place.

O Thou ancient Holy One: in thy wisdom, the universe unfolds
in the directions of wholeness and truth and beauty.
Make this fragile planet and us,
thy wayward children,
a part of that journey, we pray.

Joys and Concerns

Please respond, “God, hear our prayers.”

The Prayer of Jesus – “The Lord’s Prayer”

(You are invited to pray this prayer in the ways that are closest to your heart.)

Creator God who is in heaven; Hallowed be your name.
Your kindom come, your will be done; on Earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who have trespassed against us.
Lead us not into temptation and deliver us from evil for yours is the kindom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Hymn

Spirit of the Living God

New Centruy Hymnal #283

Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me;
Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me.
Melt me, mold me, fill me, use me
Spirit of the Living God, fall afresh on me.

Gospel Reading

John

Chapter 4:1-15

^{4:1} When Jesus learned that the Pharisees had heard he was attracting and baptizing more disciples than John ² —though it was really not Jesus baptizing, but his disciples—³ he left Judea and returned to Galilee. ⁴ This meant that he had to pass through Samaria.

⁵ He stopped at Sychar, a town in Samaria, near the tract of land Jacob had given to his son Joseph, ⁶ and Jacob's Well was there. Jesus, weary from the journey, came and sat by the well. It was around noon.

⁷ When a Samaritan woman came to draw water, Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." ⁸ The disciples had gone off to the town to buy provisions.

⁹ The Samaritan woman replied, "You're a Jew. How can you ask me, a Samaritan, for a drink?"—since Jews had nothing to do with Samaritans.

¹⁰ Jesus answered, "If only you recognized God's gift, and who it is that is asking you for a drink, you would have asked him for a drink instead, and he would have given you living water."

¹¹ "If you please," she challenged Jesus, "you don't have a bucket and this well is deep. Where do you expect to get this 'living water'?" ¹² Surely you don't pretend to be greater than our ancestors Leah and Rachel and Jacob, who gave us this well and drank from it with their descendants and flocks?"

¹³ Jesus replied, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again. ¹⁴ But those who drink the water I give them will never be thirsty; no, the water I give will become fountains within them, springing up to provide eternal life." ¹⁵ The woman said to Jesus, "Give me this water, so that I won't grow thirsty and have to keep coming all the way here to draw water."

Church Covenant

In response to God’s love, we covenant with each other...
to be faithful to the demands
and inspiration of the eternal spirit, revealed in the event of Jesus Christ;
to accept and respect each other with love and concern
in our worship and witness;
to reach out with the courage of our convictions
in the cause of justice, liberation, and equality for all.
In this, we covenant to keep the ultimate promise: “I care, I am with you.”

Postlude What I Did For Love
Words by Edward Kleban, Music by Marvin Hamlisch

Sayville Congregational United Church of Christ

For more nearly 175 years, Sayville's Congregational Church has served families on the South Shore of Long Island and has been a voice for the progressive Protestant tradition. A member of the United Church of Christ since it was established in 1957, we celebrate God's love, however you may know God, by our continuing to advocate for the oppressed, while welcoming all on their spiritual journey, from wherever they may come. Thank you for being with us today. Please contact us at any time for more information about our congregation and questions you may have.

Thank you!
